Brethren:

Another Sweetheart Breakfast was a Success!

A lot of Thanks to Andrew Mendez, J.C. , Sheldon and Jason Duarte. As usual the Crowd didn't show up till about 9:30. The Kitchen was able to handle it.

Special Thanks to Steve Pashby and the Master for staying with the Dishes and cleaning the kitchen. These two guys left at two o'clock. Will report more at Stated Meeting.

My last trestle board article. Thank God! Congratulations to our Newly Installed Officer Line! I hope we have some good upcoming events. I apologize for not making it to the pancake breakfast and the installation. I was at the Magic Castle with some friends, thanks to Worshipful Miles putting together a wonderful murder mystery dinner, which enabled me to get tickets from Brother Sharpo who was the entertainer. So long Brethren ! So may we ever, meet, act or part.

From the South...

Greetings Brethren! I hope the New Year, Valentine's Day, and everything 'beginning of the year' and taking out a fresh sheet of paper for 2024 is going well with everyone! One of the items for this year is a return of the Murder Mystery Dinner! Are we in favor of it? Will anyone attend??? Before reaching out to the entertainer and caterer, I think it's important to answer these questions. A lot of effort went into last year's event...and from what I remember from the feedback, it was pretty well received (of course, nothing's 'perfect'...and neither are we....). It would be nice to see members we haven't seen in a while, make re-acquaintances, and enjoy a nice evening! On the 'Lodge front', the Lodge Officers are in the process of qualifying for the various stations and positions. Some new leaks have appeared from the recent rains, which need to be addressed. LA County Elections seems very pleased with our accommodations in hosting them for election training, and being one of the Polling Places. PLEASE!!! If you have any comments, criticisms, suggestions...don't hesitate to reach out and contact me!!! Until April (how is the year going so fast?????)....

What are Masonic Aprons?

An apron was worn by Operative Masons to protect themselves from rough stones and tools. Presently, it is a badge of fraternal distinction. During his first degree, each Mason is given a plain white leather apron; it represents the white lambskin, a symbol of innocence. Here in California, at least, it is Masonic tradition that after a man has completed his three degrees, he no longer wears that apron to lodge meetings. Instead he carefully puts it away and wears one of the cloth aprons each lodge supplies for its members and visitors. The white leather apron becomes a keepsake throughout his life and finally, at his passing, he wears it in death as an eternal symbol of hope. Every Mason should tell his wife and family where he keeps his apron.

Should I Contact anyone when My Mason is Ill or Hospitalized?

In the event a member becomes ill, his Lodge would appreciate knowin g. You may call the Master, Wardens or Secretary of the Lodge. (The lodge's monthly notice has the phone numbers of the Master, Wardens and Secretary). Your Mason has joined an organization which wants to assist him and you when in need, and we need your help to do that.
