Friendly Lodge of the Foothills

Worshipful Masters Mumblings

Spring is here! The days are getting longer, nights shorter, barbeques are warming up, and patio furniture is getting washed off and ready for the warmer days to come. To all of the candidates who have yet to give their Degree proficiency, I encourage you to get it done. I also encourage all members of the Glendora Lodge to come and support the Lodge and your fellow brethren. You only get as much out of the Fraternity as you put into it and this spring is the perfect time to renew your commitment to the Craft. As we clean up our homes in time for the warmer months, let's also try to clean out our lives and get back to the basics of Masonry.

Young Brethren, it is you that will carry us through the next ten years. You, like I took an obligation to continue your Masonic Education, and build upon that superstructure implanted to you at your first degree, I call upon you to fulfill that obligation. If you are unable to come to an open Lodge in the Third Degree, come to the Lodge that is open unto you. Work on the upcoming events that will take place throughout the year so that you can familiarize yourself with how we run and preserve the future of Glendora Lodge.

Rick

Brethren:

Several members, 13, have still not paid their 2025 Lodge dues, which by the CMC were due by the first of January. This amounts to $2,531.00.

Please take a look to see if you have a 2025 dues card. It is actually called a dues receipt but I don't want to be too technical here. If you do not have a dues card (receipt) you have not paid your 2025 dues and are in arrears. Dues are $181.00 for the year and can be made payable to, Glendora Lodge. See page 3.

We are all proud to be members of this Lodge, where many fine friendships have been formed. We do not want to lose you, and urgently request that immediate payment be made, or that you show reasonable cause why the dues should be remitted.
